

COLLEGE OF NATURAL SCIENCES DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

California State University, San Bernardino, a comprehensive regional university, is one of the fastest growing of the 23 California State University campuses with approximately 14,000 students, 500 full-time faculty, and 44 undergraduate and 21 graduate degree programs. The University consists of Colleges of Business and Public Administration, Education, Arts and Letters, Natural Sciences, and Social and Behavioral Sciences. Off-campus programs are offered at the Palm Desert campus. The University is situated 70 miles east of Los Angeles, offering easy access to beaches, mountain, and desert resorts. The rapidly expanding metropolitan area offers a wide variety of cultural and recreational opportunities. Housing costs average substantially below those of nearby Los Angeles and Orange Counties.

California State University, San Bernardino is an Equal Opportunity Employer, and has a strong institutional commitment to the principle of diversity in all areas. In that spirit, we are particularly interested in receiving applications from a broad spectrum of qualified people who are representative of the diversity in California. California State University, San Bernardino hires only those individuals who are lawfully authorized to accept employment in the United States.

The Department of Mathematics invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position at the level of Assistant Professor to begin September 2010. Applicants are required to hold a Ph.D. in mathematics or mathematics education. Special consideration will be given to candidates with a demonstrated interest in K-12 mathematics education. The position is partially funded by a mathematics education grant, with the goal of enhancing education in upper elementary grades and improving success in algebra. The successful candidate's assignment will include teaching in-service elementary school teachers as well as standard faculty responsibilities.

Preferred candidates will be expected to meet the traditional requirements of excellence in teaching, active scholarly and professional work, and service to the University and community. In addition, new faculty are encouraged to develop and participate in activities that support the University's strategic plan. This plan emphasizes three areas: a) alternative modes of instructional delivery to include off-campus and distance learning; b) the learning process, i.e., innovative teaching strategies and/or research on how students learn and apply knowledge over an extended period of time; and c) partnership with the community to enhance social, economic, and cultural conditions

Terminal degree is required at the time of appointment.

SALARY: Dependent on qualifications and experience.
Assistant Professor range begins at $49,692.

BENEFITS: Generous medical, dental, and vision benefits and support for moving expenses available.

DEADLINE AND APPLICATION PROCESS: January 9, 2010 or until filled. Submit vita with letter of application that includes statement on teaching philosophy and strategies, research/professional accomplishments and goals, and a description of any interest or experience in any of the three strategic plan areas. Also submit the names, telephone and fax numbers, and e-mail addresses of three references, along with an official copy of most recent transcripts.
